Balancing time online

Perform an audit of your daily activities by filling in the table below. Extra spaces have been provided for you to add any other activities you do each day.

Activity	Details of activity	Hours per day
Eating
Sleeping
Playing
Homework
Being active
Relaxing
Studying

Balancing time online

Estimate how much time you spend on the following activities each week. There are some blank boxes for you to add any activities not listed

Activity	Time spent on computer	Time spent on phone or tablet
Searching online – for fun
Searching online – for homework
Sending emails
Instant messaging
Webcam chatting
Social Networking
Watching and sharing video content
Other tasks for homework
Playing games
Sending texts

Balancing time online

- What did your audit reveal?
- Was any amount of time longer than expected?
- How much time are you spending on the computer for homework or socialising?
- How do these figures compare to time spent on these activities offline?

House rules

- Create a set of rules about the use of screen time in your house.
- Think about tech free zones and time limits

Screen Rules

- Screens are a privilege, not a right.
- No screens at the dinner table.
- No screens after 6pm.
- Screen time is a choice.
- Screen time is not private.
- Bedrooms are screen-free.
- Turn screens off when told.
- Homework before games.
