

This afternoon we worked together to put percussion music to our song 'London's Burning'. The children organised this in their groups and were able to come up with their own percussion support.

