Kassim and the Greedy Dragon

Once upon a time there was a poor boy called Kassim who lived on the edge of a dark forest.

Early one frosty morning, he began to walk to school. His mum warned him "Beware of the dragon who lives in the dark forest."

He walked and he walked and he walked, jiggety-jog, jiggety-jog, jiggety-jog, until he came to a damp dark cave.

The first time Kassim looked into the cave he heard heavy footsteps shuffling. The second time Kassim looked into the cave he saw a pile of glittering jewels!

Kassim crept into the darkness and took not one, not two but three huge diamonds that glowed like the sun.

Suddenly the Greedy Dragon appeared with teeth like daggers and claws like knives. It shuffled its wings and snorted its fiery breath.

Kassim screamed and then he ran and he ran and he ran, jiggety-jog, jiggety-jog, jiggety-jog, with the dragon shuffling behind him, snorting its fiery breath.

Finally Kassim made it home. In his hands he held not one, not two but three huge diamonds that glowed like the sun. Kassim never went into the dark forest again.
