

river

beach

Here are some examples of sentences to describe the settings. Can you come up with your own?

Pick a noun. (sun)

Describe the noun. (bright sun)

What is the noun doing? Use your verb. (bright sun glows) how or where? Adverb could be used here. (bright sun glows in the sky)

add a simile if you want. (bright sun glows in the sky like a torch in the dark)

Turn it into a sentence. (The bright sun glows in the blue sky like a torch in the dark.)

I live next to a dark, scary house. It has boarded up windows. There are broken parts of the roof. The garden has long, dead grass moving in the wind.

I live on the edge of a golden, sandy beach. The large waves crash against the shining rocks. The bright sun glows in the sky like a torch in the dark.

I live by a calm river. The water sways slowly down the stream. There are green trees standing still together. Fluffy, white clouds float in the sky like a duck in the water.