

GRAMMAR BURST:

FRONTED ADVERBIAL CHALLENGE

Tick the box to indicate if the sentence includes a fronted adverbial for how, where, or when.

How Where When

Behind the shops,
Maura found a £10 note.

Before the sun came up,
they had packed the car
and were on their way.

Without a sound, the
alligator leaped out of the water.

Once a month,
mum checks the
car's tyres.

In the blink of an eye,
the star flared across
the sky and was gone.

Down the back of the sofa, Peter found three pens, an old sock and
two remote controls.

Lost in thought, Ali
missed the turning to get to school.

Choose three of these nine words. Write a sentence that starts with that word and also starts with a fronted adverbial.

As            Before            All Under            In            By
With            Without            After

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

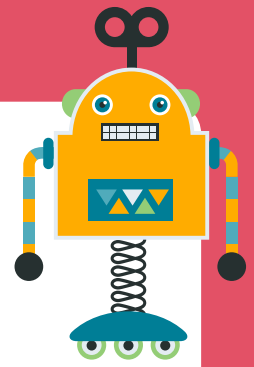

---

---

---

---

---

Rewrite each of these sentences so that they begin with fronted adverbials.

The cat yawned.

---

---

She danced.

---

---

The train came to a halt.

---

---

Steven walked up the hill.

---

---

The robot burst through the wall.

---

---

Kim remembered she had left the door unlocked.

---

---

Look at this picture. Can you write a five-sentence story about it? One of your sentences must start with a fronted adverbial.

Lined writing area for a five-sentence story. The lines are horizontal and span most of the page width, starting from the top left and ending near the bottom right. There are 15 lines in total.

