L.I. Can I plan to write a setting description.

When writing a setting description, it is important to remember that this will be part of a larger piece of writing. Next week, we will be writing an adventure story, so I would like you to think about the setting as part of this story. I would like you to watch this film <https://www.literacyshed.com/23-degrees-5-minutes.html> which is where we will get our inspiration from next week. Here are some images that might help with your plan too.

Remember to think about a range of words/phrases you could use in your setting; for example, figurative language, expanded noun phrases, interesting verbs and adverbs, prepositional phrases. Use synonyms of words; for example, instead of fell you could use cascade, tumbled, plummeted.

Using the words and phrases that you have thought of, use these sentence starters to write some sentences:

The weather was.....
In front of him loomed a
He/she saw.....and felt.....
It was as.....as.....
He/she could hear.....it sounded like.....
There was a smell, it was like.....

Senses
Smell	Sound
Touch	Taste
Objects- what do you see?	Mood- how does the image make you feel?
